March 19: “E-pologetics” - not just a head game

- Is the Great Commission a requirement for all believers today?
- How do you engage in conversations about faith with ardent unbelievers and hardened atheists?
- How do you share the gospel in a world that questions Christian ethics, the existence of God, and even the existence of truth?
- How do you faithfully share the gospel on a regular basis in a confident and convincing way?

Christopher Samuel and Tremayne Terrell will answer these questions and more in the upcoming presentations, "E-pologetics (Apologetics as Evangelism)" and "How to be an Apologist"

Christopher Samuel is a lay apologist with over 15 years of experience in general apologetics and theology. Tremayne Terrell is a lay apologist with over 10 years of experience in apologetics with a focus on cults and urban apologetics.

If you have a heart for the gospel and for the souls of people, we invite you to come. Whether you're a seasoned apologist or you've never shared the gospel before, this is for you.
